TO: The Honorable Conrad L. Rushing, Presiding Justice, and to the $451.79 for translator fees. This motion is based on the attached declaration of counsel.

Respectfully submitted,

DECLARATION OF COUNSEL

I, Jonathan Grossman, declare:

1. I am a staff attorney for Sixth District Appellate Program, which has been appointed to represent appellant Mario Salazar. I handled the appeal as a staff case.

2. Good cause exists for the requested authorization for translator fees because:

a. Appellant speaks and is literate in Spanish; he does not speak or read and write in English. He was appointed a Spanish interpreter in the trial court.

b. I do not speak Spanish, nor can I read or write letters in Spanish.

c. Mr. Salazar and I wrote to each other discussing whether he should proceed with his appeal. This required an understanding of his right to appeal, the scope of the appeal, and the issues which could be raised. He wrote to me three letters and I wrote to him two letters which needed to be translated by the Century School of Languages. The total cost was $451.79.

3. No prior requests for translator fees has been made.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the state of California that this declaration is true and correct. Executed on March 3, 2003 at Santa Clara, California.
